The Stanford-NVCA Venture Capital Symposium offers practical guidance on achieving success as a venture capitalist in a rapidly changing marketplace. Learn to respond effectively to new governance challenges at venture capital firms and at portfolio companies, and explore best practices in fund management and limited partner relationships. Speakers include leading venture capitalists, limited partners, CEOs, regulators, attorneys, and scholars.

TOPICS FOR 2019 WILL INCLUDE:

- Board-Founder Dynamics
- Managing a Fund
- Culture and Ethics
- Exits: Acquisitions, IPOs, Direct Offerings and Secondary Markets
- Conflicts of Interest and Fiduciary Duties
- Succession Planning
- The Limited Partner Perspective
- Creative Ways CVCs Move the Needle for Portfolio Companies

CLE credit will be available.

PROGRAM FEE:

$1,900 EARLY BIRD PRICE (on or before December 31, 2018)

$2,300 FULL PRICE (after January 1, 2019)

Group rates available upon request.

The following registrants will receive a 10% discount off the current tuition rate:

- NVCA Members: Enter the code "NVCA"
- Stanford Students, Faculty & Alumni: Enter the code "ALUMNI"

Please note that the Stanford-NVCA Venture Capital Symposium is limited to members of VC firms (e.g. partners, principals, associates, analysts, EIRs, GCs, etc.) and board members, senior executives or GCs of venture-backed companies, including CEOs/founders and independent directors.
